

Educational futures

e-journal of the British Education Studies Association

Contents

|  |        |
|--|--------|
| Editorial   | 1-2    |
| Alan Hodkinson, Stephen Bartlett, Les Hankin, Emmanuel Mufti, Lisa Murphy  |        |
| What Education Studies is and what it might be  | 3-13   |
| Patrick Ainley   |        |
| Education Studies and Employability: how do students and graduates define the subject and what do they perceive its vocational relevance to be? | 14-30  |
| Alan Hodkinson   |        |
| Despite Ourselves? Education Studies: between spirit and 'passing on'   | 31-39  |
| Stephen Griffin and Julian McDougall   |        |
| Emotional Intelligence: towards a generic framework for the 21st century   | 40-56  |
| Chris Wakeman  |        |
| Cultures of knowledge, learning and assessment: an encounter between two Education Studies programmes   | 57-70  |
| Suanne Gibson and Joanna Haynes  |        |
| Teaching Portfolios and the Quality Enhancement Project in Higher Education   | 71-84  |
| Timothy Murphy and Iain MacLaren   |        |
| What is 'policy', a problem-solving definition or a process conceptualisation?  | 85-96  |
| Hope Nudzor  |        |
| Enhancing pupil motivation through an alternative curriculum: valuing youth-selected activities   | 97-107 |
| Wendy Bignold  |        |

Conference Special

Managing Editor: Professor John G. Sharp

Volume 2(1): September 2009

© BESA 2009

ISSN: 1758-2199